

TD Bank Presents Donation to Habitat for Humanity, Newark

NEWARK, NJ – May 28, 2009 – Habitat for Humanity, Newark (HFHN) announced TD Bank, through the TD Charitable Foundation, has once again donated $5,000 to help the organization provide affordable housing to hardworking local residents in Essex County New Jersey.

"TD Bank is proud to support Habitat for Humanity," said Nicholas Miceli, market president, TD Bank. "We are committed to partnering with organizations that enhance the quality of life for those in the communities in which our employees and customers live and work, and Habitat for Humanity is a like-minded partner who is tireless in its efforts to improve the lives of those in our communities."

The donation will be used for Habitat, Newark's general building fund, according to David Zurheide, Executive Director, HFHN. "We're grateful to TD Bank for its support of our mission," Zurheide said. "They have again demonstrated their dedication to helping people in this community."
