

Montclair Kimberly Academy Students Raise Cash for HFHN

Students at Montclair Kimberly Academy recently had a fund raising project that resulted in a great donation to Habitat for Humanity Newark.

Students who donated to the cause all signed a 2x4 that will be incorporated into a new house being built in Newark.
